

ACTIVITY: CONSEQUENCES

HOW TO PLAY CONSEQUENCES

1. Each player, take a piece of paper.
2. At the very top, write 'Once upon a time' and complete the first sentence of a story. Don't tell anyone what you've written!
3. Fold the paper down over the writing so you can't see it.
4. Pass your paper to the player on your left, and write the second sentence of a story on the paper just passed to you.
5. Fold it down again and pass it on, and repeat until the stories are finished.
6. Unfold and tell your funny story to everyone!

If you like, instead of writing a story, you can draw a funny character bit by bit – head, then shoulders, then arms and torso etc.
